

The cosy kitchen is on the ground floor and is accessed via the front side door, or by coming down the stairs and through a door on the left from the small hallway. It has a round table with four wooden chairs and is fitted with electric hob and oven, washing machine, microwave and fridge. The glass panelled double doors look out onto the garden and can be opened to enjoy a summer's day. There is plenty of parking outside the building.

DESCRIPTION

The unit comprises a large double bedroom/living room with sofa (can be used as an extra bed) with comfy chairs, table and large TV. (wifi available)

Adjacent is a twin bedroom leading to a small tiled bathroom/loo/shower.

The accommodation is up a set of wide wooden stairs. The kitchenette is on the lower floor.

There are lovely views on both sides.

SELF CATERING BY CULLODEN INVERNESS

Set in lovely rural quiet surroundings one mile from Culloden Battlefield, yet only four miles from the centre of Inverness, This self-contained accommodation is in the grounds of Westhill House, the home of Tim and Janet Honnor. With a double bedroom and a twin room, it can sleep up to four persons.

To arrange a viewing please ring:
01463 793225

This is the view from the top floor, looking down the drive towards the North. Westhill House is off to the far left of this picture. There is a side lawn, with bench table can be used for outdoor meals. The adjacent woods can be walked in, and there is a direct walking or cycling path to the Culloden Battlefield

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This accommodation is available for a minimum let of one month.

It would be very suitable for someone re-locating to Inverness or perhaps a doctor or person with a short term job in the Highlands. Also for contractors or business people away from home.

(Please note that the bathroom is at the far end of the top floor and thus access to these facilities has to be through the twin bedroom)

Directions (from the Inverness side)

Take the B9006 road to Culloden/Croy from off the A9 and follow the signs towards the Culloden Battlefield. Westhill House is on the South side of the road one mile before the battlefield when approaching from the West. (Turn right opposite Blackpark Farm)

We hope that this brochure will give you an idea of this delightful accommodation, in a beautiful and quiet location, and yet only fifteen minutes from both the centre of Inverness and the airport at Dalcross.

Terms

Tim and Janet Honnor have done B&B for a number of years but now wish to let their flat unit on a longer term basis.

They are offering the following terms:

One month occupancy £900 pm

Two month occupancy £750 pm

Three or more months £650pm

The electric usage will be paid for monthly - determined by the meter in the flat kitchen
